

Mamakating Library Director's Report

October 4, 2017

Peggy Johansen

News

- The library has received a significant contribution from Harold Diamond of Wurtsboro.
- The Mamakating Library Teen Battle of the Books team battled mightily for 4th place out of 16 teams at the RCLS competition on September 10th.
- Joy Patton met with Chase Elementary School families at the Open House on 9/28.
- Kyla Schoonmaker, OCCC student, will be leading Toddler Time for October and November and offering Tech Help evening appointments on Thursdays in October.
- The Friends of the Library donated a dozen chrysanthemums for the front of the library and three teen volunteers prepared the bed and planted them.
- The library is collecting non-perishable food and supplies for the residents of the hurricane-ravaged island of Barbuda to benefit a local family and their extended family members.
- Martha Sullivan, RCLS Software Support Technician, conducted in-house software training for our staff on 9/18. Martha noted that Donna Drake's work is noteworthy for her ability to correctly process library materials!
- The library has been offered a 6-foot catalpa tree sapling with bagged root ball by Stephen Erny. He will keep it watered until we decide whether to accept the gift.
